Index

Volume III

ARTICLES

Mexican Americans and the Acquisitive Syndrome
by William H. Metzler. 1

The Trist Mission
by Jack Northrup 13

Mexico's Exiled Royalty
by Thomas J. Dodd, Jr. 32

The Free Negro and Texas, 1836-1860
by George R. Woolfolk

Anglo-American Attitudes Toward the Hispanos, 1846-1861
by Alvin R. Sunseri 76

The Texas Threat, 1855-1860
by Edward H. Mosely 89

Mexican-Texans in the Texas Revolution
by Thomas L. Miller 105

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST and the "Mexican Invasion"
by Raymond A. Mohl 131

Mexican Repatriation during the Great Depression
by George C. Kiser and David Silverman 139

REVIEWS

Mexican Repatriation: Research Needs and Perspectives
by Abraham Hoffman 165

Index

Volume III

ARTICLES

Mexican Americans and the Acquisitive Syndrome
by William H. Metzler. 1

The Trist Mission
by Jack Northrup 13

Mexico's Exiled Royalty
by Thomas J. Dodd, Jr. 32

The Free Negro and Texas, 1836-1860
by George R. Woolfolk

Anglo-American Attitudes Toward the Hispanos, 1846-1861
by Alvin R. Sunseri 76

The Texas Threat, 1855-1860
by Edward H. Mosely 89

Mexican-Texans in the Texas Revolution
by Thomas L. Miller 105

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST and the "Mexican Invasion"
by Raymond A. Mohl 131

Mexican Repatriation during the Great Depression
by George C. Kiser and David Silverman 139

REVIEWS

Mexican Repatriation: Research Needs and Perspectives
by Abraham Hoffman 165

The Tree of Hate and John Joseph Cantwell
by Allan Figueroa Deck, S.J. 171

Organized Labor in Mexico
by John Vishanoff 176

Joe Hill
by George N. Green 179

Los Mojados and "Mexican Repatriation Statistics: Some Suggested Alternatives to Carey McWilliams"
by George C. Kiser 181

The Life and Times of Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla
by Mario S. Guerrero 186

INDEX

Volume III (1973)

Prepared by Joseph P. Navarro

Acquisitive society: described, 2-3
Acquisitive syndrome: removal of, 7-9
Acquisitive urges: impact on Mexican history, 1
Agribusiness: and Mexican labor, 141
Ahualulco (battle), 93
Alcorta, Lino Jose, 15
Almonte, Juan (General): link between Iturbide family and Maximilian, 39
Alvarez, Juan: opposes Santa Anna, 90
Alvarez, Manual: quoted, 80-81
"La Amarga Realidad Texana" (The Bitter Texas Reality), 89
American journalism: and nativism, 131, 136
American republicanism: lethal to Mexican Empire, 33
American soldiers: behavior of in New Mexico Territory, 83
Anderson, W.C.: murders Hispano boy in 1851, 83
"Anglo Attitudes Toward Hispanos, 1846-1861," 76-88
Anglo condescension: toward Hispanos, 76
Anglo expansion: and Mexican idea of citizenship, 55-56
Anglo-Protestant culture: antecedents contrasted with Latin-Catholic culture in Texas, 50
Aramberri, Jose Silvestre, 94
Arizona: and Box Bill, 144; Silver Belt, cited, 143
Army of the North: divided, 93
Artisans: importance of in Mexico, 2
Authority: submission and resistance to in Mexico, 4-5

Bankhead, Charles (British Minister), 14
Bartlett, J.R.: and contempt for Hispanos, 78; and "Mexican's decadence," 82; quoted, 80
"Battle donation," 106
Bent, Charles: deplores behavior of American soldiers, 83; quoted on Mexican docility, 78-79
Blanco, Miguel, 93
Bliss Bill, 152
Bogardus, Emory S.: encourages studies of Mexican repatriations, 139; and false repatriation impression, 145
Bounty land grant, 106
Border Patrol, 132, 141
"Box Bill": and Arizona nativism, 144
Bruckner, Wilbur M. (Michigan's governor): helps repatriation of Mexicans, 153
Buchanan, James: refutes Iturbide family land claims, 38

Burnet, David G. (President of Texas Republic): and donation land grants, 106
Calhoun, John C.: quoted on his fear of mongrelization with Mexicans, 81
California Farm Bureau Federation, 145
Callahan, James H. (Captain): led expedition into Coahuila, 91
Canon law: and stratification, 51
Carbajal, Jose Maria Jesus, 89-90
Carroll, Raymond G.: and nativism of the depression, 135
Cass, Lewis (Senator): quoted on attitude toward Hispanos, 77
Catholic Europeans: and slavery, 52
Citizenship: test of liberty, 55
Citizens' Committee on Unemployment Relief, 150
Clark, Marjorie R., 176-178
Colorado: border blocked, 144
Comite Mexicano de Beneficencia, 151
Comofort, Ignacio: 90-92; rejected by Iturbide family, 39
Constitution of Cohuila and Texas: egalitarian, 55
Convent of the Visitation: Iturbide family quartered in, 35
Coolidge, Calvin: administrative approach to Mexican immigration, 141; opposed to quota system for Latin America, 147
Cortina, Juan N., 94
Coyotes (labor recruiters), 6
Cultural compromise: of Anglos in Texas, 61

Daily Ledger (San Antonio), 93
Davis, W.W.H.: on Anglo supremacy, 82
Deck, Allan Figueroa: reviews by, 171-175
Degollado, Santos: liberal commander, 93; orders Vidaurri's arrest, 94
Detroit Times: and Mexican Repatriation, 155
Diaz, Porfirio (president): and Iturbide's, 41
Dodd, Thomas J., Jr.: article on "Mexico's Exiled Royalty," 32-48
Donation land grant: defined, 106
Doniphan, A.W. (Colonel): and governor of New Mexico, 83
Doyle (Chief of British legation): role in Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, 25
Due process: and free Negro in Texas, 62
Duncan, J. K. (Captain): asked to enter Mexico by Vidaurri, 94

England: role in "Mexican War," 20
European immigrant: as superior to Mexicans, 134
Excelsior (Mexico City)
Exchange Hotel (incident): soldiers attack Hispanos, 85

Fannin, J. W. (Colonel), 121-122
"The Free Negro and Texas,1836-1860": article by George R. Woolfolk, 49-75
Free Negro: a threat to slavery, 57; denizen status, 58; dilemma of in Texas, 56-57
French Revolution: ideological impact on Latin America, 53
Freud, Sigmund, 7

Gangewere (immigration inspector): report on repatriation trains, 155

Garcia, Guadalupe (Colonel): withdraws from Army of North, 93
Garret, Garet: anti-Mexican writer for Saturday Evening Post, 133
Garis, Roy L.: argues against Mexican immigration, 133-135
Garza, Catarino: guerilla leader, 42
Garza, Juan Jose de: opposes Santa Anna, 90
Georgetown: Iturbide family exiled to, 34
Gonzalez, Nancie: quoted on Anglo-Hispano relations, 77
Green, George N.: review by, 179-180
Green, Alice: marries Angel Iturbide, 35. See also: Iturbide, Alice Green de.
Gregg, Josiah: quoted on the Hispanos, 79
Greek justice, 50
Gruber Incident (1857), 85
Guadalupe Hidalgo (Treaty of), 25
Guerrero, Mario S.: review by, 186-187

Hannegan, Edward A.: quoted on Mexican mongrelization, 81-82
Harrisburg (battle): Mexicans in, 117-121
Henry, W. R. (filibusterer), 92-93
Hispano ricos: role as Tio Tamales, 76
Historical background; of Mexican immigration, 140-141
Hoffman, Abraham: review article on "Mexican Repatriation: Research Needs and Perspectives, 165-170; reviewed, 183-185
Hoover, Herbert: cited, 141; interested in good relations with Latin America, 147-148; opposed to quota system in Latin America, 147
Houston, Sam: quoted, 63

Indians: stratification of in pre-Spanish Mexico, 4
International Labor Defense: opposed repatriation in Detroit, 154
Isham, J.B.G. (Captain): agrees to survey Iturbide land claim, 37
Iturbide, Agustin (Mexican Emperor): 33; exiled, 34; given amnesty in Mexico, 36; shot by "republican government," 34
Iturbide, Agustin III (grandson of the Mexican Emperor): adopted by Maximilian and Carlota, 40; enters Mexico's Military Academy, 41; jailed for criticizing Diaz regime, 42-43; marries Louise Kearny, 43
Iturbide, Agustin Cosme, 36
Iturbide, Agustin Geronimo: eldest son of Emperor, 35
Iturbide, Alice Green de: 40, 43; attempts to gain family pension, 38
Iturbide, Angel: second son of Emperor, 35
Iturbide, Anna Maria (Empress of Mexico), 34-35, 36
Iturbide, Felipe, 36
Iturbide, Josefa, 36
Iturbide, Juana, 35-36
Iturbide, Sabina, 35-36
Iturbide, Salvador, 36

Joe Hill: review of, 179-180
John Joseph Cantwell: review of. 174-175
Johnson, Ed (Governor of Colorado): closes Colorado border on Mexicans, 145
Johnston, Albert Sidney (Texas Secretary of War), 106
Jordan, Anne: compiler "Mexican American Publishing Guide," 190-208

Juarez, Benito, 92; loses faith in Vedaurri, 93-94

Kendall, George W.: quoted, 14, 23
Kiser, Geroge C. and David Silverman: article on "Mexican Repatriation during the Great Depression," 139-164; reviews by, 181-185

Land: granted for military service, 105
Latin-Catholic culture: contrasted with WASP culture, 50
Law: determinants of, 49
League of Mexican Workers and Peasants: aids in Mexican repatriation, 153
The Life and Times of Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla: review of, 186-187
Lockridge, S. A., 92
Lopez, Jose Antonio (priest): helps Iturbide family in the U.S., 34-35
Los Angeles: and repatriations, 150-152
Los Angeles Times : pro-Mexican labor, 145

Mackintosh (British Consul), 14
McLane-Ocampo Treaty (1859): opposed by Vidaurri, 94-95
McLean, Robert: opposed to Mexican immigration, 146
McMahan, A. P., 186-187
McWilliams, Carey: quoted, 76, 151, 152
Machinery: to replace Mexican labor, 134
Marks, Isaacs Domingo (land speculator), 36-37
Metzler, William H.: article on "Mexican Americans and the Acquisitive Syndrome," 1-12
"Mexican American History: A Critical Selective Bibliography": third edition by Joseph P. Navarro, 188-189
"Mexican American Publishing Guide," 190-208
Mexican Americans: in battles of San Jacinto and Harrisburg, 117-121; in Siege of Bexar, 107-116; serve with Colonel J. W. Fannin, 121-122
"Mexicans Americans and the Acquisitive Syndrome": article by William H. Metzler, 1-12
Mexican Government: participation in repatriations, 152-153; rejects Iturbide family's pension claim, 39
Mexican immigrants: considered racially and morally decadent, 134; declared unassimilable and burdensome, 135
Mexican Independence: influenced by French political classics, 54
Mexican labor: exploitation of in U.S., 6; needed by agribusiness, 145; and Saturday Evening Post, 132
"Mexican Repatriation: Research Needs and Perspectives": article by Abraham Hoffman, 165-170
"Mexican Repatriation during the Great Depression": article by George C. Kiser and David Silverman, 139-164
"Mexican Repatriation Statistics": review of, 183-185
Mexican Revolution, 5
"Mexican Texans in the Texas Revolution": article by Thomas L. Miller, 105-130
Mexico: compared with American acquistiveness, 2-3; and effect of acquisitive urges, 1; legitimate British interests in, 25; and nonmaterial values, 2; occupation opposed by Trist and Scott, 25; opposed to repatriation, 146; pre-Spanish stratification, 4; and status of artisans, 2; arguments over occupation of, 16-17

"Mexico's Exiled Royalty": article by Thomas J. Dodd, Jr., 32-48
Michigan: Mexican repatriations in, 153
Miller, Thomas Lloyd: article on "Mexican Texans in the Texas Revolution," 105-130
Miramon, Miguel (general), 93
Mission Canyon Chapter of D.A.R. (Santa Barbara): and Mexican immigration, 144
Missouri Republican: quoted, 79-80, 84
Moderados: sought American protectorate in Mexico, 16
Mohl, Raymond A.: article on "The Saturday Evening Post and the 'Mexican Invasion'", 131-138
Los Mojados: review of, 181-183
Molino del Rey (battle): disaster of, 22; reaction to by American army, 23
Moseley, Edward H.: article on "The Texas Threat, 1855-1860," 89-104
Myrdal, Gunnar: quoted, 7

Nager (incident), 83
National Archives: source on Mexican immigration, 140, 141
Navarro, Joseph P.: essay on "Mexican American History: A Critical Selective Bibliography," 188-189
Nehru: quoted, 2
Newby, Edward (Colonel): tries to discipline American soldiers, 84
New York Times: pro-Mexican labor, 146; quoted on Mexican repatriations, 152
Noll, Arthur H., 186-187
Northrup, Jack: article on "The Trist Mission," 13-31
Nuevo Laredo: Mexican train arrives late to, 156

Organizations: opposed to Mexican immigration, 144
Organized labor in Mexico: review of, 176-178

Pacheco, J. R. (Mexican Minister), 14
Padrones, 6
Paz, Octavio: quoted, 4, 5
Piedras Negras: set on fire by Callahan Expedition, 91
Plan of Ayulta, 90
Plan of Iguala: egalitarian features of, 54-55
Plan of Monterey, 90
Poinsett, Joel R.: opposed to Mexican Empire, 33
Polk, James K.: quoted, 13; reaction to Trist-Scott conduct in Mexico, 24
Powell, Philip Wayne, 171-173
Powerless: role of in acquisitive order, 2-3
La Prensa, 146
Price, Sterling, 83
Private organizations: and Mexican repatriations, 149-152
Protestantism: racist nature of, 52
Puros: and plan to use American Army, 16

Quota system: and Mexico, 132

Racism: and The Saturday Evening Post, 131-136; roots of, 52
Rencher, Abraham: quoted on behavior of American soldiers, 85
Repatriados (Mexican repatriates): motives for their return to Mexico, 151-152
Repatriation: decentralized nature of, 148-150; neglected topic, 139 Republic of Sierra Madre: and fear of creation of, 90-95

Republicanism: factious nature of, 33
Review of Reviews: pro-Mexican labor, 145-146
Rivera, Diego: aids in Mexican repatriations, 153
Roberts, Kenneth L.: extreme anti-Mexican writer, 132
Roman law, 51

Samora, Julian, 181-182
San Jacinto (battle): Mexicans in, 117-121
Santa Anna, Antonio Lopez de: 90; maligned, 25; opposed by Mexicans, 16
Santa Barbara: nativism of, 144
Santa Fe Ring: as an unholy alliance, 77
Saturday Evening Post: and anti-Mexican propaganda, 131; favors quota system for Mexico, 131-132; inflames nativism, 136; publishes Charles C. Teague's argument for Mexican immigration, 133
"The Saturday Evening Post and the 'Mexican Invasion'": article by Raymond A. Mohl, 131-138
Scott, Winfield (General): against occupation of Mexico City, 15; criticized by Kendall, 22; feels President Polk wants to ruin him, 16; Nicholas Trist's quarrel with, 13; and knowledge of Molino del Rey Foundry, 23; makes peace overtures to Santa Anna, 15; and racial prejudice against Mexicans, 25
Sedgwick, John (General): quoted, 23
Semmes, Raphael (Lieutenant): quoted, 15
Siege of Bexar, 106
Silverman, David and George C. Kiser: article on "Mexican Repatriation during the Great Depression," 139-164
Slaves: problem of in northern Mexico, 93
Smith, Gibbs M., 179-180
Southern law: and status of free Negro, 60-61
Stereotypes: of Mexican docility, 83
Sulpician Fathers: at St. Mary's Seminary, 35
Summer, E. V. (Colonel): quoted on the moral decadence of Hispanos, 79
Sunseri, Alvin R.: article on "Anglo Attitudes Toward Hispanos, 1846-1861," 76-88; refutes Nancie Gonzalez, 77-78
Survey Graphic: pro-Mexican labor, 146

Taylor, Paul S.: appreciated, 165-166
Teague, Charles C.: argues for Mexican immigration, 133
Technology: as means to replace Mexican labor, 134
Tejanos: at battles of San Jacinto and Harrisburg, 117-121; in the Siege of Bexar, 107-116; distrusted by Texas Court of Claims, 107
Texas: "The Bitter Texas Reality," 89; and compromise with Latin law, 64; secretaries of war issue bounty donations, 107
Texas Adjutant General's Office: burned, 107
Texas Congress: and bounty grants, 106; and donation land grants, 106
Texas Court of Claims (1856-1861): distrustful of Tejanos, 107
Texas General Land Office, 106
Texas Republic: compromised on free Negro's right to own property, 64; its constitution and free Negro, 57-58, 63

"The Texas Threat, 1855-1860": article by Edward H. Mosely, 89-104
Texas Revolution: soldiers promised land, 105
Thorton, Edward (of British legation), 14; quoted, 25
Toynbee, Arnold J.: quoted on racist nature of Protestantism, 52
Treaties, Guadalupe Hidalgo, 25
Tree of Hate: review of, 171-173
"The Trist Mission": article by Jack Northrup, 13-31
Trist, Nicholas P., 13-31; criticism against, 21-22; and his racist views on Mexicans, 25

United States: as acquisitive society, 2-3; failure to understand Mexican values, 21; hostility toward Mexican Empire, 33; journalism, 131, 136
U.S. Army: and Trist, 20-21
U.S. Commissioner of Immigration: receives letters on cheap Mexican labor, 141
U.S. Consulate: asked to reduce visas, 141
U.S. Secretary of Labor: receives letter from bitter California nativist, 141
El Universal (Mexico City): quoted, 146-147

Values: in Mexican history, 2
Veteran donation, 106-107
Vidaurri, Santiago: 90; exiled to Texas, 94
Violence: among people with rising expectations, 7
Visas: as alternative to quota system, 147-148
Vishanoff, John: review by, 176-177

Walker, William (filibusterer), 37
War of Reform: supported by Vidaurri, 92-93
Weber, Francis J., 174-175
Welfare agencies: role in Mexican repatriations, 148
"White workers": superior to Mexican labor, 132, 134
Woolfolk, George Ruble: article on "The Free Negro and Texas, 1836-1860," 49-75
World War I: and Mexican immigration, 131
Words: importance of to Mexicans, 21

Yeager, Harry (immigration inspector), 155

Zaragoza, Ignacio: able commander, 93; opposes Vidaurri, 94
Zuazua, Juan: death of, 94; Vidaurri's commander, 92-93
Zurbrick, John (Detroit District Director of Immigration): reports on repatriation trains, 155-156